

SPORTS, Politics, Free Markets and the State

International Colloquium of the Liberal Institute
Friedrich-Naumann-Stiftung für die Freiheit
Potsdam, 27th June 2008

Venue:

Truman House, the HQ of Friedrich-Naumann-Foundation
Karl-Marx-Str. 2

14482 Potsdam

Tel.: 49 331 7019 0 / 49 331 7019 210

Programme

Friday, 27th June 2008

Until 10.30 h: Arrival of participants and registration

- 10.30 h Welcome of the guests/ participants and introductions
- 10.45 h Competitive Sports and Popular Sports: Public Tasks?
Detlef Parr, MP, Germany
- 12.00 h Coffee Break
- 12.30 h Sports and the free Market
Raymond D. Sauer, Professor of Economics, Clemson University,
South Carolina, USA
- 13.45 h Lunch Buffet
- 15.00 h Can international Sports be un-political?
Jutta Braun, Lecturer in History of Sports, Potsdam University, Germany
- 16.15 h Coffee Break
- 16.45 h Sport as Virtue, Sport as Love, Sport as Commerce
Lincoln Allison, Essayist, Emeritus Reader in Politics, University of Warwick; visiting Professor of the Politics of Sport,
University of Brighton, UK
- 18.30 h Dinner

25.06.2008

Friedrich Naumann
STIFTUNG

FÜR DIE FREIHEIT

Saturday, 28th June 2008

10:00 h Discussion with the authors on the conception of the publications

subsequ. Cultural programme